

Wondering what to do with 'your inside time' now the AZ temperature is rising? Read on...

TO: ArizOTA Artisans and Crafters!

OT and OTA Practitioners & Students

First ArizOTA Artisans' Festival & Silent Auction

New Conference Opportunity to

Celebrate the ART along with the SCIENCE of our OT practice!

Purpose

- Celebrate Arizona's creative OT practitioners & students...vendors, too
- Raise funds to support ArizOTA activities related to the promotion of occupational therapy and growth of student scholarships.

Please donate items to the First Annual Artisan's Silent Auction to benefit two critical needs for the Arizona Occupational Therapy Association:

- Expand our current scholarships to help more Arizona servant-leader, students complete their studies (to grow our professional community)
- Promote occupational therapy with key stakeholders and decision-makers in Arizona

The Artisans' Silent Auction will be during the Annual Fall Conference.

All donors will be recognized three ways: a conference flyer naming all donors, donor's name on the auction sheets on the day of the event (unless specify anonymous) and in our social media. Donors will be able to provide business cards to be adjacent to their item for conferees to take (optional expectation)

We would love to be able to recognize your exceptional creative work at our Fall Conference Program.

Please contact me for further information about being a silent auction donor. Please share this with your fellow OTs who thrive on right brain creations! Contributions accepted after April 1st!

Thank you, in advance, for ensuring donations to this very worthy event!

Sincerely,
