

In honor of Occupational Therapy Month,

Department of
Occupational Therapy

Arizona Occupational Therapy Association

are pleased to present a conversation with

Jean K. Ehlers

one of the inaugural Occupational Therapists in Arizona

Ms. Ehlers was instrumental to the growth of the field in our state, opening many programs and serving in leadership of ArizOTA.

Tuesday, April 3rd, 2018

Northern Arizona University Phoenix Biomedical Campus

4:30 check-in

4:30 to 5:00 - networking/reception with fellow OT professionals

5:00 - presentation by Ms. Ehlers

6:00 close of the evening.

ArizOTA is offering 1 CEU for attendance at the event.

Please reserve a spot by going to: www.eventbrite.com

Search for NAU or ArizOTA or go to the direct link:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/nau-ot-and-arizota-present-jean-k-ehlers-arizona-ot-pioneer-registration-43958552213?aff=es2>

Occupational Therapy
Empowering Independence

Attendance is limited to:

* members of ArizOTA

* NAU OTD students, alumni, faculty, adjunct faculty and mentors and

* guests specifically invited by ArizOTA or NAU OTD

(Licensed Occupational Therapists, Occupational Therapy Assistants and faculty and students of occupational therapy schools in Arizona who are not current members of ArizOTA may become a member at the registration table. Questions about membership? Please contact office@arizota.org or go to arizota.org.)

Please contact ot.otd@nau.edu for questions about the event or about the Northern Arizona University Occupational Therapy Doctoral Program or by going to www.nau.edu/chhs/occupational-therapy/